

:: Summary

This post explains the meanings and uses of the word “cry.” As a noun, “cry” means “clamor,” “grito.” As a verb, it can mean “gritar,” “chorar” or “clamar.”

:: Exercises

Translate the following sentences:

1. Don't cry; everything is going to be fine.

2. If God's people cry out to Him, He will hear them.

3. I think taking the pills was a cry for help.

4. Ted could hear a woman's voice crying for help.

5. That film always makes me cry.

6. The horses gave a cry of alarm.

7. She was really sad but stopped crying as soon as she saw him.

:: Vocab words

as	como
both	ambas
noun	substantivo
each	cada
usage	uso
as well as	tanto como
joy	alegria

crowd	público, multidão
previously	anteriormente
as such	como tal
hear	ouvir
utter	pronunciar, proferir
alarm	pavor, pânico

Answers: 1. Não chore; tudo vai ficar bem. 2. Se o povo de Deus clamar a Ele, Ele os ouvirá. 3. Eu acho que tomar pílulas foi um clamor por ajuda. 4. O Ted conseguiu ouvir a voz de uma mulher clamando/ gritando por ajuda. 5. Aquela filme sempre me faz chorar. 6. Os cavalos deram um grito de pavor. 7. Ela estava realmente triste mas parou de chorar assim que o viu.