

:: Summary

This post explains the different phrasal verbs that use the word “take.” “Take out” means to knock someone over violently or “por pra fora.” “Take in” means “hospedar” or it can mean to arrest someone. “Take on” means “encarar” or “aceitar.” “Take off” means “fazer decolagem” or “tirar.” Finally, “take over” means “dominar.”

:: Exercises

Fill in the blanks:

1. The plane will take _____ in one hour.
2. If you try to take _____ the opponent with a broken arm, you will die.
3. He tried to take _____ the company, but he failed.
4. If we surprise the robber, we can take him _____ with this bat.
5. If we agree to take you _____ for the summer, you have to pay rent.

:: Vocab words

garbage	lixo
knock someone over	derrubar alguém
stinks	fedo
thought	penseu
thief	ladrão
wood	madeira
wrong	errado

heard	ouvimos
awhile	um tempo
opponent	oponente, adversário
accompany	acompanhar
cruise	cruzeiro
airplanes	aviões
about	prestes